

Casa de Deseo

2400 Addison Street

This house by Darling Homes offers homeowners the distinct flair of Spanish Colonial architecture. Featuring more than 5,000 square feet of luxurious living spaces, the home is designed with family living and frequent entertaining in mind. A large, covered terrace wraps around most of the front of the house, and the front door opens to a spacious foyer. The spacious formal living area boasts a two-sided cast stone fireplace that can also be enjoyed by the cozy downstairs solarium. The comfortable dining room is connected to the gourmet kitchen by a convenient—and storage-friendly—butler's pantry and kitchen catering area, which makes entertaining easy and keeps all of the preparation areas out of sight. The kitchen boasts signature Viking stainless appliances, including double ovens, gas downdraft cooktop, dishwasher, and microwave. A breakfast room and expansive family room with numerous windows allow for lots of natural light, and open to a covered patio on the back of the home. A private master suite, guest suite, oversized office, mudroom, and a three-car garage complete the downstairs of this luxurious home.

Upstairs, families or out-of-town guests can enjoy the three large bedrooms with private baths and spacious closets, a large balcony, and numerous air-conditioned storage areas. A library with full-paneled, color-stained walls, landing area, and master suite provide the perfect escape.

The Casa de Deseo home also boasts a third floor, complete with a large media room, half bathroom, and wet bar. This is the ideal entertaining area for sports enthusiasts, movie nights, sleepovers, and large parties.

The interior designers' inspiration was drawn from contemporary Mexican influences and a color palette of sunset-colored yellows and oceanic blues, combined with orange, gold, pink, brown, and cream hues. The home features Brazilian cherry wood floors throughout, and the furniture and upholstery are bold and exotic to accentuate the home's unique architecture, creating a stunning look.
