

Bainbridge Tudor

7300 Ripley St.

From the outside decor, Bainbridge Tudor is the classic style made popular in the early part of last century when men fighting in the European theatre were exposed for the first time to Old World architecture. Stonework and deep-toned woods make a statement of elegance.

Step inside and the design creativity will excite your eyes. Tumbled-stone marble greets you as you walk in the front door, the floral pattern reflecting the soft, natural statement of the Tudor style. A deep-toned study is filled with intricate woodwork, while the formal dining room is styled in natural tones to allow sunlight to be the real star of the room. An adjoining butler's pantry makes dinner parties a breeze with easy access to the kitchen.

Tucked off the dining room is a covered porch. The gourmet kitchen also opens onto this quiet refuge, the perfect place to drink a morning coffee and take in the day. The kitchen is designed as a place of community with a large island for gathering family as well as a breakfast nook complete with a wall of windows to enjoy nature's glow. The Tudor-style backsplash is in keeping with the exterior. Keeping the integrity of the style throughout the entire home is a signature of SLC Homebuilding, LLC. Kick your meal into high gear with an appliance package from Viking. An additional pantry allows the kitchen to be well-stocked and refills readily available.

Connected to the kitchen is the family room, a large space dedicated to fun. A beamed ceiling harkens back to the time period but also creates a visual impact. Doors opening to one of two pergolas allow for balmy breezes to cool the room.

Dive into luxury in the master suite. The room is tucked away for extra privacy.

It also opens onto the pool-sized courtyard for added serenity. Breathe in the sparkling master bath complete with polished Navona travertine combined with a multi-colored mosaic and handcrafted, iridescent glass.

Upstairs reveals a floor for family living. Three bedrooms and two baths afford upstairs residents room to roam. A large upstairs "bonus room" opens up into a decked out media room perfect for entertaining a boisterous crowd or just enjoying a night in for two.
